Certified Administrator in Physician Practice Management (CAPPM)

What is the Certified Administrator in Physician Practice Manager (CAPPM) credential?

With the rapidly changing face of the medical practice and facility, the role of the practice manager is more important than ever. The professional who has obtained the CAPPM credential is a recognized professional in the field of medical practice management. Through The American Academy of Medical Management, this certification process assures that the individual who earns this coveted status will be well versed due to the required course work and experience requirements.

OPTION ONE: (NO EXAM OPTION) REQUIREMENTS:

- I. Current employment in one or more areas of medical practice management.
- II. Preparation of an employment letter, denoting your position and dates of employment (signed by employer) and a resume of qualifying experience (minimum of two years experience).
- III. Full completion of the Official Certification Application and ALL supporting documentation.
- IV. Continuing education totaling 60 hours during the past three years from The American Academy of Medical Management in any area of practice management.
- V. Current American Academy Membership.

OPTION TWO: (WITH EXAMINATION) REQUIREMENTS:

Note: As you see below, the examination is only one of the requirements; therefore the order in which you complete the requirements is of your own choosing. However, you MUST have a minimum of 18 months full time experience to sit for the examination.

- I. Current employment in one or more areas of medical practice management.
- II. Preparation of an employment letter denoting your position and dates of employment (signed by employer) and resume of qualifying experience (minimum of two years experience). At your option, you may take the exam prior to fulfilling all education qualifications.
- III. Completion of the Official Certification Application and ALL supporting documentation.
- IV. Satisfactory score on the Certification Examination.
- V. Completion of at least 18 units of Professional and Continuing Education Units. At your option, if you have at least 18 months experience, you may take the exam prior to fulfilling all education qualifications.
- VI. Current American Academy membership.

To obtain the total of 18 required units your options include:

1. Medical Practice Management Experience Units: Over the past three years, ONE UNIT FOR EACH QUARTER YEAR, full-time equivalent (up to 12 total units).

How Do I Keep My CAPPM Credential?

The initial CAPPM designation is bestowed for a period of three years. During that time, Recertification requirements must be achieved in order to continue the designation for three additional years. This enhanced credential will document the professional's ongoing commitment and experience, as well as provide credentials more advanced for the practice management professional's career. To obtain Recertification status, CAPPMs must continue their AAMM membership and meet the following requirements:

CAPPM RECERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS:

- I. Current employment in one or more areas of medical practice management. You must include with this application an employment letter, denoting your position and dates of employment (signed by employer) and a resume of qualifying experience.
- II. Three full years as a Certified Administrator in Physician Practice Management (CAPPM).
- III. Full completion of the Official Certification Application and ALL supporting documentation.
- IV. Continued American Academy membership.
- V. Over the past three years a total of 21 units calculated as:
 - one unit for each quarter year full-time experience (up to 12 total units),
 - one unit for each six hours of approved Continuing Education Units
 - one unit for professional contributions, awards and professional designations

If you do not meet the above 21 units of experience and educational requirements, successful completion of the current CAPPM Examination will qualify you.

To obtain the total of 21 required units your options include:

1. Medical Practice Management Experience Units: Over the past three years, ONE UNIT FOR EACH QUARTER YEAR, full-time equivalent (up to 12 total units).
2. Continuing Education Units: Over the past THREE years, ONE UNIT FOR EACH SIX HOURS of instruction (no limit on the number of units). For this requirement, The American Academy will consider verifiable education from various associations and institutions of higher learning. HOWEVER, COLLEGE COURSES ARE NO MORE THAN ONE UNIT PER ACCEPTED CLASS.

EXAMINATION TOPICS WILL INCLUDE from the perspective of the Practice Administrator:

Operations, Financial Management, Personnel, Managed Care, Patient Management and Systems, Medical Records, Billing and Receivables, Compliance, and other related areas.

FEES:

CAPPM Recertification Application: $170 members (non members are not eligible) (non refundable)
